

George Mack Draper, Sr

May 20, 1923 - July 3, 2017

Mr. George Mack Draper, Sr., age 94, of Riddleton, TN, passed away peacefully on Monday, July 3, 2017 after a brief illness.

Mr. Draper was born May 20, 1923 in Riddleton, TN, the son of the late Mr. Jerome Mack Draper and Mrs. Cassie Dillard Duke Draper. He graduated from Hopkinsville High School in Kentucky in 1940, and later graduated with honors from Vanderbilt University with a Bachelor's Degree in Physical Chemistry, and a double minor in Physics and German in 1945. He worked for the R.C. Owen Company for nearly 50 years as a Vice President and Lumber Salesman.

He married Wilma Jo Riley Draper on June 21, 1959 and she preceded him in death on March 10, 2011 after 51 years of marriage.

A devoted husband, father, and grandfather, he treated his family with the utmost love and respect. During his lifetime, he was an active member of the Methodist Church, where at times he served as a Sunday school teacher, treasurer, and sang in the choir.

As a former member of the Athenaeum Society, he researched and presented papers on various topics covering mathematical, historical, and literary fields.

An accomplished artist, Mr. Draper served as President of the Hopkinsville Art Guild, and was a member of the Tennessee Art League. He especially loved to draw and had a great ability to express himself through creating portraits with exacting detail. While living in Hopkinsville, he shared his artistic talent by traveling to Ft. Campbell and drawing portraits for soldiers at no charge. In recent years, he enjoyed creating portraits of people in the community he loved to call home.

Possessing a curious and inquisitive mind, he was constantly engaged in the pursuit of learning something new, being especially fond of mathematics. Even into his 90's, he enjoyed solving puzzles and playing Scrabble with his dear friends.

He retired to the family farm and built a home on the exact site where several generations have lived before. This decision to leave the city and move to the country proved to be a very happy time in his life.

Mr. Draper is survived by three children, Jere Bowen Draper of Corydon, Indiana, George M. Draper, Jr. and wife, Thien Huong Vu Draper, of Madison, Alabama, and Mary Elizabeth Draper, and husband, Gregory Edward Hager of Charlotte, North Carolina. He is survived by two grandchildren, Rebecca Ann Draper and Diana Rose Draper, Brother-in-Law; William Boyd Riley of Adams, Tennessee. He is also survived by numerous friends and loved ones that have supported him through the years.

Funeral Services for Mr. Draper are scheduled to be conducted from the Carthage Chapel of Bass Funeral Homes on Friday, July 7, 2017, at 10AM with Mary Draper Hager and George Mack Draper, Jr, eulogizing and Bro. Charles Smith and Bro. Tom Gibson officiating. Interment will follow in the Dixon Springs Cemetery.

Visitation with the Draper Family will be at the Carthage Chapel of Bass Funeral Homes on Thursday from 3PM until 7PM and on Friday after 8:30AM until service time at 10AM.

The Draper Family requests donations be made to the Chapel Hill United Methodist Church, Riddleton, Tennessee.

“ Mr.Draper was such a kind, sweet spirit. I am grateful to have spent time drawing with him and just talking about faith, art, life, ...and even math. Mr Draper was always encouraging and always generous in sharing his time, attention, thoughtful counsel, and warm friendship. I learned so much from him and will always feel blessed to have counted Mr.George and Mrs.Wilma as friends. Several years ago, he and Mrs.Wilma came and spoke to my high school art class about the type of art each enjoyed making. Even the students remarked about how Mr.Draper beamed with pride when Mrs.Wilma demonstrated her painting techniques. Although I am sad to hear of his passing, I am happy that he is back by Mrs.Wilma's side. I pray that his family finds comfort in knowing how loved, cherished, and respected Mr.George truly was. He will be so missed. -Jenny Ford Penuel

“ I went to Uncle George and Aunt Wilma's wedding when I was three years old. I remember very little about the wedding, but I knew it was big. It was huge for a three year old. I remember how handsome Uncle George was and Aunt Wilma was so beautiful. Uncle George was my Sunday school teacher growing up, and I learned so much. I didn't realize how much I learned from him until I got older. I'll never forget how Uncle George and Aunt Wilma took Granny Riley into their home when she was bed-ridden. They showed her so much grace and compassion. He was an outstanding man. I am praying for the Draper family, and hope they will pray for us since we will all miss him.
