“ I meet Marion and her husband Feb 12th 2016. I was their housekeeper. I couldn't forget the date because I brought her a huge Valentine balloon. You would have thought I had purchased her a brand new car. She was so grateful and thank me numerous times. Marion loved flowers. I can remember Sharon bringing flowers in. Marion would say oh that's so nice. One thing she would always say was very good. I always would smile when she said that. When I was hired for her housekeeper she said come twice a month. And make that on a friday. So after cleaning the first time that afternoon Sharon called and says Mom likes you. Can you come every week But Mom prefers to do her on dusting. So while I was there she would be up and dusting with her little feather duster. Many times I wanted to help her out. But she enjoyed that and she wanted those family pictures a certain way. Later after her fall while in the nursing home. I would go assist her with her dinner. But before that food tray came down the hall. We had to fix that hair. With lots of spray. We didn't have a mirror so I would take her picture with my phone and show her. Once she said oh I look so nice! After leaving the facility I was one of the caregivers in her home. Oh the eclairs we ate together. She loved those sweets. Marion loved family and get togethers made her so happy. I'm so grateful to have known her. She was my jewel. Prayers for all the family. May your heart be filled with peace knowing she's in heaven.
