

Sue Maggart Petty

November 23, 1929 - December 1, 2018

Sue Maggart Petty of Carthage peacefully departed this life surrounded by her family and friends at home on December 1, 2018.

She is survived by her husband, Dr. Gordon Petty of Carthage, Tennessee; sons Steve Maggart (Michelle) of Brentwood, Tennessee, and Mike Maggart (Regina) of Knoxville, Tennessee; sister Carolyn Fleet of Brentwood, Tennessee; nephew Bill Fleet (Lynne); niece Cathy Nash (Wesley); niece Patricia Hayes (Mike); grandchildren John Maggart, Todd Maggart (Demi), Rachel Maggart (Maajid Nawaz), Alison Butler (Brent), Michael Maggart, and Renée Maggart; great-grandchildren Sarah Maggart, Samantha Maggart, Matthew Maggart, Will Maggart, Angelo Cardona-Maggart, and Gabriel Nawaz; and innumerable cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Sue was born November 23, 1929, in Akron, Ohio, to E.B. and Elizabeth Vantrease Woodard. First educated at Gordonsville Elementary and Gordonsville High School, she completed two years at Cumberland College and then attended Tennessee Technological University.

Sue married O.M. Maggart, Jr. in 1947, and together they had two sons and operated a trucking company. As a young mother, Sue was totally devoted to her children. She was there everyday. Warm, tolerant, loving, and forgiving, she offered uplifting support through good times and bad. She had nerves of steel and unsurpassed determination. After O.M. passed away in 1966, she became employed by the U.S. Postal Service in Carthage. She worked her way up to postmaster of the Gordonsville office from which she retired in 1995.

Sue had a passion for genealogy and everything historical in Smith County. She coedited with Nina Sutton and contributed numerous sections to the reference book History of Smith County, Tennessee, published December 30, 1986. It contains over 800 pages providing a thorough history of the county and many of the families that have roots there. A reference point for many, it reflects years of research and is one of the most sought-after books on the the history of Smith County. It has been sold out for years.

In 1998 Sue authored The History of Carthage United Methodist Church, a congregation of which she was a longtime member and historian. Her book covers the history of the church from the time John Wesley was ordained deacon of the Church of England in 1725 through its publishing date. It highlights past pastors, church families, and other members.

Sue was also a very active member of the Smith County Historical and Genealogical Society. From 1989 until 2006 she edited the work of others, wrote many articles, and typed and “published” on her personal xerox machine 16 volumes of the society’s quarterly newsletter.

Other works of Sue's include Smith County Cemeteries South of the Cumberland River (Key, C.; Maggart, S.; Turner, J.) and Smith County Marriages 1881-1920 (Maggart, S.; Sharenberger, L.), along with many other smaller books. She also did extensive research and writing on several Smith County families from whom she was descended or related. The volume of this material is overwhelming.

Another major project Sue championed was the preservation, abstracting, and indexing of hundreds of ancient Smith County court records. She led a host of volunteer historians who spent countless hours unfolding, reading, and abstracting as much information as possible from these old forgotten documents. The beautiful product of their labor is protected in the county archives at the old courthouse. In Spring of 2018, the archive office was named in Sue’s honor. Sue was also one of the original organizers of the Smith County Museum, which houses artifacts documenting the county’s history.

Sue served two terms as Regent of the Caney Fork chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR). She was also an officer of the United States Daughters of 1812 and a member of the Colonial Dames of Virginia. As a DAR she was involved in decorating and preserving grave sites including that of William Walton.

She was the Smith County Historian for many years. One of her final accomplishments was the placement of the Cordell Hull Bridge on the National Registry of Historic Places. This, coupled with political efforts on multiple levels, resulted in the saving and reconstruction of the bridge, preserving this historic architecture we take for granted every day.

The Maggart family wishes to acknowledge with deepest appreciation those who enriched the life of our mother, Sue Maggart Petty, especially in her final years. First, her loving husband of 20 years, Dr. Gordon Petty, who was her constant companion and fellow life traveller. Together they saw the four corners of the earth and then some. Next, Jo Sponaugle, caregiver and wonderful friend; Marian Cothorn, loving “daughter;” Chris and Connie Baxter and Pert and Ralph Underwood, her final bridge club; Sam Petty and family, who were always there; and Richard Rutherford, M.D., her doctor.

Sue was a beautiful person with a radiant and unforgettable smile. She will be forever missed.

A celebration of Sue’s life will be held on Monday, December 3rd, at Carthage United Methodist Church at 11:00am. Interment will follow in the Ridgewood Cemetery.

A receiving of friends will be held at the Carthage Chapel of Bass Funeral Home on Sunday, December 2nd, from 3:00 to 7:00pm and the following morning, Monday, December 3rd, at Carthage United Methodist Church from 10:00 to 11:00am.

In lieu of flowers, donations in memory of Sue may be made to the Daughters of the American Revolution or the Smith County Historical Society.

Pallbearers: John Maggart, Michael Maggart, Todd Maggart, Will Maggart, Matthew Maggat, Brent Butler.

Honorary Pallbearers: DAR, Sunday Bridge Group, USPS Workers, Caregivers, Smith County Archive Group, Smith County Historical and Genealogical Society.

Bass Funeral Home, Carthage Chapel, Directors

Cemetery

Ridgewood Cemetery

Cemetery St

Carthage, TN, 37030

Events

DEC Visitation 03:00PM - 07:00PM

2

Carthage Chapel of Bass Funeral Home
807 N Main Street, Carthage, TN, US, 37030

DEC Visitation 10:00AM - 11:00AM

3

Carthage United Methodist Church
608 Main St. N, Carthage, TN, US, 37030

DEC Service 11:00AM

3

Carthage United Methodist Church
608 Main St. N, Carthage, TN, US, 37030

Comments

“ Our most sincere condolences on such a great loss. Her beautiful spirit, sense of adventure and fudge pies (of course) will be greatly missed. She was a lovely person and will be missed by our whole family. Our prayers are with everyone.

Reverend David G. Petty, III and family
(Rachel, Anna & Micah)

Rachel Patman - December 04, 2018 at 02:14 PM

“ Sue Petty was a rare and irreplaceable treasure for all of the people of Smith County and it was a special delight to have known her. People of her insight, drive, and talent are few and far between. Her kind and unselfish help during our historical research in Carthage will long be fondly remembered. Rest in peace, Sue -- you will be greatly missed but your legacy will live after you.
-- Donald B. Ball and Marcia E. Hemming
Louisville, Kentucky

Donald B. Ball - December 04, 2018 at 11:02 AM

“ Sue leaves a hole in the hearts of many SmithCountians, Including, mine. Brandon "Buddy" Maggart.

Brandon Maggart - December 01, 2018 at 07:18 PM

“ Aubrey Harwell family purchased the Pink Tribute Spray for the family of Sue Maggart Petty.

Aubrey Harwell family - December 01, 2018 at 04:02 PM