“ Grandma Driver told us a story about when she and Grandpa Driver lived over the hill from Pa Jim and Mamma Curtis and Aunt Amy was a little girl. Aunt Amy would walk to the top of the hill and holler "Odell, come get me. I can't walk any farther." Grandpa Driver would go get her and carry her down to their house every time. Grandma Driver loved their time together when Aunt Amy sat with her. She said they would "pilfer". She used to say, "I changed her diapers when she was a baby, and now she has to help me with mine." We love Aunt Amy.
