“ Beth, Mike and Bob, We are so sorry that we can't be there to pay our respects to your mom. We have loved her since we were small children looking up to our "big cousins" on Sundays at Ma Paschall's.
She was a special friend, we loved her and she will be missed.

“ I will remember Aunt Becky as a sweet and generous soul who always showed me kindness and love. Becky was the first person to make me sugar toast, sweet coffee, and authentic "Southern" cooked green beans. Besides those memories, I will remember her as my funny, pretty, and stylish Aunt. During this time of sorrow, I take comfort from my many lovely memories of her; I am sure her family and friends do as well.
