“ You were the hardest working dude I had ever met in 2015. You guys erected the plant I currently work at in 2015 in 8 days!! I told Every one I knew about yall. You and Cayce taught me so much in so little time and I instantly had a bond with the Hesson boys. My heart hurts for Jamie and Tyler. You were so excited to start a new chapter in life in Northern Va . We had so many plans. To think that we will never do any of that kills me man. From the day I picked you up from the airport, you missed Jamie and Tyler so bad I had to keep my eye on you. I didn't want you to have to stay in a home that wasn't truly a home without your wife and your son. We had plans to clean up the house(unpack) so when little Tyson made his arrival in Va the next chapter would start and you would be whole again. I never once saw sadness in your eyes or heard it in your voice , but I had a feeling. You had such a big heart you would never allow anyone to go without their needs. You were the little Brother I never had and we had a bond like no other. You loved me and my wife and we loved you. I will never forget you . You will teuly be MISSED by MANY.Rest easy little Brother until we meet again and start a new chapter.
