“ Carolyn loved her friends and family, especially her son Phillip who always meant the world to her. She'll be missed but not forgotten. She was quick to offer help to those in need without any desire for recognition of the service.

“ I love you so much mom. Boy am I gonna miss you. Miss doing your hair and nails and pickin at you laughing and smiling. Thank you for all you have done. You brought such joy and light to us I want you to know. I'm gonna miss our dinner and lunch dates and all of our talks about this and that... mostly duchess. You were so crazy about her. I'll never forget the smile on your face when we brought her home when she was just a couple months old a wee little puppy. You didn't want her to leave your side and wanted to feed her everything she wanted. You're so funny. I know you're at peace now and I'm only thankful you're not in any more pain and suffering no more. Thank you for raising such a strong gentleman. I'm thankful every single day for him. I couldn't be more blessed to have had the both of you. I love you forever moms. Brittney Cherry
