“ Growing up we had some rivalry. You always got to wash dishes and I dried. Some of our silliness ended in fights...I accidentally sprayed you with hot water! When Jannah came along we argued about who would play with her or babysit. But we had some good times, too. Long talks, going to camp together. I enjoyed visits to TN as our children grew. Remember the time we painted your wood paneling in living room? You learned to make amazing biscuits while working at the truck stop. Your pot roast was always good, too! And how did you always manage to shop ahead and get all the grands Christmas gifts before November? My favorite, sleeping all night in the King bed with you, mom and a few of the grand kids! Just crazy but fun. I love you, sis. I was trying to make it over to see you. I will miss you. But so thankful for the time we had in July. Can't wait to see you in heaven. What a time we'll have praising the Lord. See you soon 😊
