“ I'm going to miss Mr. David from his lunchbox talks about the Bible and cattle, to the way he would get finished talking on the phone and just hang up no matter if I was talking or not, and you can't forget " maindest thing is don't get excited". His willingness to help, his dedication to do as the Bible says, to do things as unto the Lord. I looked up to him and the example he was to me over the past few years will not be forgotten, and I'm lucky to have known him. He left a testimony of salvation ,that comforts me knowing he is in glory but I'll miss him.

David was a good friend and a co-worker from years past, he was always smiling and always would stop and talk to you and leave you with some kind of knowledge. I will miss my friend but I know he is in Heaven making everyone smile and rejoicing with friends and family that has pasted. Prayers for all the family...
