“ Sid and Wanda changed my life way back when things were rough. So much I would never have done without them. I will always love them. And Sid was always the life of e very party. They will always be loved and never forgotten. COVID quarantine keeps us from being there but you are all in our thoughts as you go through yet another trying time in your lives. Rest in peace Sid. I know Wanda is happy to have you with her once again.

“ Syd was a great neighbor and even raised friendly cows that used to like to come over to my place for a change in their grass diet. He told me once that he would fix the fence, but they would come back as they liked my grass. I will certainly miss that smile and the great hugs he gave.
