“ Sorry to learn of the Passing of Eva Lee. I remember visiting their Home in Nashville as my Mother, Cleora Woodard, and I went to the Wally Fowler all night singings in Nashville many many years ago. It was always a pleasant time to visit and have them come to our home in Lancaster to visit with us. We will see each other again some sweet day, soon.

“ I meant to come by this morning but didn't get to. You are in my prayers. Rejoice evermore. Pray without ceasing. In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 KJV

“ My thoughts and prayers are with this family as they face the days ahead. Mrs. Blackburn was a faithful servant who is now gone to her reward. One day, oh, one sweet day all those who trust Jesus as their Savior will be with God and Mrs. Eva Lee to never be separated again. What a blessed promise!
