

Glenn Allison Beckwith

June 21, 1938 - September 9, 2025

Glenn Beckwith, beloved husband, father, grandfather, and friend, passed away peacefully, surrounded by the family he loved so deeply.

Glenn lived a life full of laughter, generosity, and heart. He was a gardener, a woodworker, a world traveler, and a man who never passed up a good joke—or a plate of cookies and peanut butter crackers. He built things with his hands and nurtured them with his heart, from backyard vegetables to lifelong friendships.

One of his proudest creations was the family dining table he built with his son – a centerpiece for countless holidays, meals, and memories. He had a deep love for nature, flowers, and making others feel seen and cared for.

Glenn led with quiet compassion and unwavering kindness. He always looked out for those in need and believed in giving more than he took.

He is survived by his wife Judy Beckwith, his three children Vicki McMahan, Stacey (John)

Tucker, and Glenn Jr. (Heather), four grandchildren Andrew, Allison, Graham, and Emma.

He will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by all who knew him.
