“ Loved playing rook at the Alexandria Senior Center with Ms Gracie! My dad was Charles Baird. Daddy was always ready for a game of rook and never lack for a partner because he was such a good and fun player, but was serious about winning. Daddy has been gone 2 years this month. I will never forget the day when they were picking partners and there was a serious discussion between Ms Gracie and another lady over who was going to be Daddy's partner. Ms Gracie after a few minutes informed the other woman in no uncertain terms, "Today is my birthday and I'm going to be Charles's partner!"
R.I.P. Ms Gracie, you will be missed.

*Love,
Sara Patton*
