“ Me, my son, and Heather went kayaking. Heather was so interested in taking thousands of pictures, she was way behind me and my son. He kept whining that he had to go so slow. When she got sick he said that if she got better, he would let her take her time without complaints.

Heather was all about thousands of pictures, her kids, and Nathaniel. Oh, and over thinking everything. She was the kindest person I've ever met and she will be missed.

“ She was a Daughter, Granddaughter, Sister, Aunt, Wife, Mother and Friend.

She was a believer, She was an adored co-worker.

She was Beautiful, She was very Smart, She was confident, She was playful and mischievous. She was thoughtful, kind and giving, She laughed, she cried. She was REAL.

Of all the things I know about Heather, She loved her daughters ❤️ above anything else.

REST IN PEACE MY FRIEND, YOU WILL BE MISSED...
