“ Aunt Irma brought me enchiladas when I had breast cancer and I will never forget how comfortable and welcoming she was to me when I married into the Over street family. She was the most caring person I ever met. Terry and I loved you dearly and Whitney you will always be family to us.

“ Irma was a kind wonderful person who was so kind and good to my mother and me, and I'm sure she was that to so many others whose lives she touched. I know her family will greatly miss her. She's now resting peacefully where the sorrows and pains of this life can hurt her no more.
