“ To the family

I will always remember Isabella's smile. She was in middle school when I first remember getting to know her. She would always come to my Sunday school class with a big smile and joyful and eager to learn. She loved Jesus and showed it by loving others.

I then had the privilege of see her run for many years in cross country. Her dedication to the sport was remarkable. Her love for the other team mates was evident. She will be missed but I will always remember her outpouring of love towards others that she encountered.

*In loving sympathy,

“ I met Bella through my daughter-in-law, Hannah. I was only around Bella a few times but it didn't take long to recognize her sweet spirit and compassion for others. It was evident that she was a child of God in the way she talked and presented herself. My heart breaks for her friends and family. Bella will be greatly missed. What a blessing it is know she has eternal life with our father in heaven. Praying peace and comfort to all that love her.
