“ I am so very sorry to hear of Gary's passing. He was such a great young man. I have not seen him in many years but the pictures online shows the kindness he had in his heart. He looks exactly the same as he did in the seventies. He was so precious. Larry, Thank you for getting the word to me. I really appreciate it. I will be praying for the family. Take good care.

“ So here is my childhood funniest moment of Gary and one of Gary's best good friend Charlie Ray Snoddy my brother in the spring of 1970' in south Nashville, (Wedgewood).

We used to have BB gun wars with each and I generally ended up being the moving target who got shot up the most by Gary and Charlie, they laughed I cried....

But one day Gary had a pump BB gun and Charlie kept bugging Gary to trade his pump BB gun for Charlie Daisy BB gun which was a little newer and Gary always like Charlie's BB gun .

So finally they agreed and traded but, this was short lived after we had a BB gun battle afterwards each other started telling the other how they got the better deal along with how the original BB guns were broken and how they rigged or cheap fixed each others traded BB gun ,but really Gary wanted his old gun back as well so did Charlie which after each other talked enough trash about the others gun they eventually swapped back ,laughed and hugged each other like close buddies 😊 they were.

Gary we will always remember your laughter and cutting up with one another, I especially am so thankful for how you treated me Vic Snoddy as your brother and friend.

God Loves a cheerful heart in a man you my brother broke that mold !

God Bless you James Gary Reed.

We will see you again in Our eternal life in The House Jesus Christ Of Nazareth promised us his children. AMEN !

“ The last memory I have of Gary was of him, my father, and my stepfather standing around an island in your kitchen. He was telling some story in his usual animated way, and i just remember how every one was so attentive to him and laughing. He had a great way of bringing people together. So genuine, funny, and kind.. ❤️
