“ Judy was my big sister and every day I want to call and check on you, it was my routine for the last 6 months. I know you are where you need to be, with daddy, moma, Steve and Keith and aunt Evelyn and many more. Your life was such a struggle and you were in so much pain for so many months. May you rest in peace now and look down us with a beautiful smile.

“ I can't believe you're gone. You are so missed already. We have so many memories together from the shirt factory crew. You were my stacker as I sewed the cuffs that went to the sleeves of the shirts. If those walls could talk?
We had the best boss I've ever had , Ronnie Huddleston. He would come over to tell us , "more work less talking." Those were some great times. I love you Judy. R.I.P my friend.
