“ Kay was a year ahead of me at Purchase Line HS, but we rode on the bus and sat together for almost all of 4 years on the bus her father, Emerson Goss drove for all of those years plus. She was a wonderful friend. So sorry for your loss.

*Kay was a classmate at Purchase Line High School.
We graduated in 1964.
We also lived close together in Hillsdale , Pa.
Her Father Emerson was our School Bus Driver.
Knew sister well also.
They lived in a very nice farm house with barn across street.
My Condolences to the Family.*

I graduated with Kay from Purchase Line High School in 1964. Kay was always a sweet, even tempered classmate. I was glad to call her friend. She always sent me a Christmas card and I looked forward to it. I'm so sorry for your loss. I know you'll miss her.
