

Lois Crowell

February 19, 1956 - February 13, 2022

Our beautiful mother, Lois “Lollypop” Marie Crowell has went to walk with Jesus on February 13, 2022 in Carthage, TN.

Lois was born February 19, 1956 in Nashville, TN, a daughter of the late Dorothy Marie Boggs Williams and Richard Lewis Williams. She was also preceded in death by Sister; Joann Stauffer, Brother; Richard Williams, Nanny; Winnie Mae, and Son; Nicholas Brown.

Lois is survived by Husband; Michael Crowell. Eight beloved children; Terry Ray Baker, Gregory Baker, Virgil Lucas Baker, Roxanne Cunningham, Scarlet Jones, Tera Jane Baker, Victoria Randolph, and Joey Michelle Crowell. Six wonderful siblings; Shirly Black, Mary Jane Williams, Sandra Watson, Winnie Williams, Hoyt Black, and Jim Black. She has thirty grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Lois was who she was – some people may not have always agreed with her but remember she played the game with cards she was dealt and always found a way. Her greatest accomplishment were her children and grandchildren and that she beat cancer five times in her life. She will be greatly missed by all. No matter what, you could always knock on her door and she would answer with a smile and hugs. Just remember, family, the greatest gift mom gave us was her love and wisdom. Heaven has a beautiful angel. Love you always.

Services will be held at a later date.

“ Lois was a no filter kind of lady who said what was on her mind and didn't care what anyone thought I'm going to miss that most I believe that is becoming a rare quality nowadays people are so worried about what people think about them they don't know who they are but Lois did not have that problem Lois was one of the strongest woman I had ever had the pleasure of knowing she will live in our memories and our hearts and to those left behind now is not the time to be divided amongst one another now is the time to come together in remembrance and healing no matter where you was in life Lois carried each and everyone of you all in her thoughts and prayers you may think that she may have written you off but that could not be father from the truth she loved all of you and would not have wanted none of you to be burdened by her death she would want you to know she is in a better place and will always be with you so love one another and treat each other right because she lives through each and everyone one of you may God bless you all fly high Lolo Lois Marie

“ My mother was always a beautiful woman she lit up a room with her beauty. She held her age gracefully. I will always remember how beautiful she always was and how good she always smelled. Also she wouldn't back down from nobody. My momma would fight in a heartbeat. She could throw hands believe that. I love you my beautiful and youthful momma 🙏🙏🙏
