“ Where do I start there are so many good memories to many to count. I spent many of days and nights with Patsy's daughter Rachel and Patsy when I was younger. Patsy and my mom were best friends we were always together it seemed. There are so many good times that I will forever cherish Patsy was a very sweet, kind, and loving person that would do anything she could for the ones she loved and cared for I loved that woman. She definitely touched many peoples hearts when she was around as long as you didn't make her mad then you would know it lol... She was loved very much by many of people and will definitely be missed by many of people. R.I.P Patsy Fly High Beautiful Angel!! I love you!!! ❤️ 🙏

“ Eating Easter dinner with her and her husband Robert along with her brother mike and his wife Dorothy and patsy 's grandkids and her kids. This is when I was first married into the family with her nephew Eddie shrum this is his wife nataley. Those were good memories. Even though we had to take her brother mike to the hospital. She was a sweet kind hearted woman. She will be missed!! R.I..P patsy Christian Lackey
