“ My friends and I ride our motorcycles every week to eat at Simply Southern in Pelham, TN. Patsy would tease us about parking in her parking place. We became friends and she would always give me hug. I will miss her. Dale Pavatte, Winchester, TN

“ Patsy and I worked together many years at TPS. She gave of her heart, soul and strength to make life better for the children. She cared deeply. Patsy was an inspiration not only to the boys & girls, but to the staff. My life was and is better for having the honor of working with her. She was not a pushover or without a mind of her own, but her big heart reached the hearts of "her kids" showing them love they so much needed. Her big heart, wit, smile and sense of humor made the load lighter & life brighter for students and employees. Patsy, your love & influence touched many, and continues to live as a tribute to you. Thanks dear friend! Jack Stone
