“ I was so sorry to hear this sad news. Pauline and I played together as children, we were neighbors with the Christian family. My sister married one of the Christian boys. I have lost contact with Pauline over the past years, but my memories are just like yesterday. We had a wonderful childhood playing out under the big green cedar trees, finding bird nests, playing tag, kick the can and more games than I can mention. My heart is sad in hearing of her passing. My condolences to the family. My prayers are that God give you peace and comfort at this sad time.
