“ My family wishes to convey our deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible promises that all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again.(John 5:28,29) At that time, "death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." (Revelation 21:4) May these promises bring you comfort in this time of loss.

“ I am so sorry about the death of your father. I went to high school with him. He was lots of fun. I know you will miss him. Ritchie and I were in the same grade. Your mother was younger; such a sweet lady. May God grant comfort and peace to you all.

“ Amber, I love you and I am so sorry. A previous commitment prevents me from attending visitation. I would like to come see you sometime, if that would be OK.
