“ John and Retta,I am so sorry about your Mom, although no one realizes more than I what a blessing death can be. No matter what, though, we're not ready to give them up and we'll always miss them. One of my dearest memories of my and my mother's visit with you guys is your Mom serving us Easter dinner. She reminded me so much of my Aunt Ruth (the Key influence, I guess), and she was so sweet to us.My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.Connie
