“ This just breaks my heart! For a time in life Sabrinas Mom was married to my Dad. When we met I was 16 and she was 10. I always adored her and enjoyed our many games of UNO and hair brushing all those decades ago. I have wondered over the years how Sabrina and her brother Tim were doing, I thought of them often. But as happens time gets away from you and you out things off. Such as reaching out to people we think of from our past. I was so sad when her Aunt Tammy messaged me and told me the news. Heaven has gained a beautiful Angel. My deepest condolences to her sons and her entire family. Such a beautiful young woman, gone too soon. Rest In Peace sweet girl...
