“ It's been a little over 6 months since Corley left , I thought I would have accepted it by now. He was my best friend from the time we met and one of the kindest, most thoughtful individuals. I consider it a gift to have know him and can't truly accept that he is no longer here, even though in my mind I know different. Thank God for people like Tony Corely. TRC.

“ The last time my husband, Nathan Hale, and I saw Tony, they talked about fishing together when they were younger. I'll never forget his amazing smile and the way he always had his adorable dog with him. He's one of very few true friends my husband had left and we'll miss Tony dearly. Our thoughts and prayers are with Ms. Ruth and the rest of Tony's family. May God wrap his arms around you and give you peace and comfort in your time of grief.
