“ I am blessed to have known such a strong woman. You made the best chicken and dumplings. Gage had the chance to meet you. He probably won't remember but the pictures and memories will last forever. I can only strive to grow up to be an intelligent woman like you. You may not be here but our memories will forever walk amongst us. I love you Granny and may you rest in peace until we can meet again.

“ Granny Porter.. You have always taught me to keep my head up high & be strong.. It's hard to do that at times, but I know that I have you looking down at me to help me along.. You have made me become so strong.. With those little times we've talked on the phone, I'd always end up crying afterwards, because I hated hearing you in pain, I am blessed that you don't have to be anymore, You are always going to be in my heart & Prayers... I Love you so much, I hope that I make you proud! And some day we will all be together again.. I know it, Tell the Lord above to take care of you.. You Deserve it ! God Bless.. I am glad that I get to call you my Granny Porter, I couldn't of been this strong without your support & talks at night.-Samantha S.

“ I first met Wilma in the mid 80's. I was immediantly drawn to her as a person I liked. She accepted me as I was. Sitting around the kitchen table talking a bought everything! You know how some people are in our lives and then out of it, Wilma stayed in my life. She is someone I always thought about, someone I remembered. I talked to here recently on the phone and it was like no time had passed. I will miss her but I will always remember her. As the song goes.. Will the Circle be Unbroken by and by lord by and by. Rest in Peace good friend. Steve
