“ I remember when I met him in our first Social Event as Interns, he was in our table, and he came and introduce himself to us, and I was so amaze. His story inspired me, and motivated me. One way or another, I will remember him as a fighter, with a pure heart, someone who always saw good in people no matter what, an unforgettable person.

“ Another intern at Deloitte, far away from familiar faces, I found something familiar about Yohan. My first impression of Yohan was that he reminded me of a friend from back home. Little did I know that he would become one of my closest friends in Nashville. I send out good, positive thoughts to the family as well as my deepest solace. In these hard times I hope to be as good of a friend to the family as Yohan was to me. He was a great man and I honor his memory.

“ I'm sorry to read about Yohan's tragic accident. Losing a loved one in death can be difficult to endure. I've found comfort in knowing that God cares for us and he can heal our broken hearts. (Psalm 147:3; 1 Peter 5:7) May your pleasant memories of Yohan help ease your emotional pain also.

“ We had the honor and pleasure to meet Yohan following Alex's first deployment. We spent a few days with the guys getting settled in their new barracks and I can't remember laughing so hard. I will always remember Yohan's smile, kindness, intelligence and generous spirit. Our prayers for his family and friends. You touched many lives Yohan.
