“ Zac has been my pharmacist for years. But he was far more than that to anyone who knew him. He was an amazing person who ACTUALLY cared about his clients. I considered him a friend, and that's not a word I use lightly. I was so shocked and hurt at the news of his passing. To his family, know that you were what mattered most to him. You guys were all he talked about. My deepest sympathy and sincere prayers go out to you. The world has lost a force to be reckoned with.

“ My heart breaks at hearing this news. I remember Zac as a little boy running around at Lebanon football games and idolizing his Daddy. He was always kind, respectful, funny, and energetic. In later years, his intelligence shined brightly along with his good looks, witty personality, friendly nature, and his extreme love for his family. We were so proud of him for achieving his dream of becoming a Pharmacist, a husband, and a doting father. All my love to all of the Medley family. Praying for God to grant you the strength to handle the many difficult days ahead.
